

VOLUNTEERS POLICY

Definition:

- Volunteer school worker means a person whom without remuneration or reward voluntarily engages in schoolwork.

Rationale:

- Volunteers add significantly to the human resources available to the school, and consequently they deserve encouragement, effective management, support and recognition.

Aim:

- To maximise the number and variety of effective volunteers who contribute to our school.
- To provide volunteers with the support and recognition they deserve.

Implementation:

- Volunteers are actively encouraged to partake in school activities, and will be invited to do so.
- Volunteers will be sought formally through the newsletter, written invitations and personal approaches, as well as informally through conversation and opportunity.
- School Council encourages volunteers assisting with school programs to have a working with children check prior to their participation.
- From 2013 all Prep parents wishing to assist in the school will be required to have a working with children check. This will continue so that when 2013 Preps are in grade 6, all parents assisting with school programs will be required to provide a working with children check.
- Volunteers may be sought to assist with school camps and excursions.
- School Council requires that volunteers assisting with school camps provide a working with children check prior to their participation.
- School Council requires that volunteers assisting with school swimming programs provide a working with children check prior to their participation.
- The school will seek to provide a variety of opportunities for volunteer participation, particularly opportunities for parents and grandparents.
- The school will seek to provide a variety of opportunities for volunteers to be involved in classes of older children and specialist areas.
- Volunteers will be provided with any support, professional development or instruction necessary to help them carry out their tasks at school in a condiment and effective manner.
- Volunteers are required to carry out tasks in a manner consistent with school expectations, including maintenance of a professional, cooperative and confident manner.
- Volunteers will not be required to carry out tasks with which they are uncomfortable.
- Individual or groups of volunteers will be thanked at appropriate times in the newsletter, publicising their contributions to the school.
- Volunteers will be required to register at the administration office daily, and wear a visitors badge whilst in the school.
- Volunteers will be invited to use the staff room and facilities.
- A morning tea will be provided in Term 4 to thank volunteers for their contributions throughout the year.
- Volunteer workers undertaking schoolwork on behalf of, and with the approval of, the School Council or Principal are indemnified as to their personal liability in similar terms to teachers.
- A volunteer school worker who suffers from injury arising out of or in course of engaging in any school work is entitled to be paid compensation in accordance with provisions of the Workers Compensation Act 1995.
- If the property under the control of a volunteer worker is damaged or destroyed in the course of or arising out of the school work, the Minister for Education or school council may authorise reasonable compensation.

Evaluation:

This policy will be reviewed as part of the school's four-year review cycle. (Ratified: Nov 2012)
