Choose 3 activities to complete off of the Learning Grid

Hunt around your home, looking for items that start with each letter sound. For example, apple starts with the /a/ sound. Draw a small picture of each item in your journal.	Look around your home and find: an item on top of something, an item beside something, an item in front of something, an item behind something. Draw a picture of what you found.	Play a game of I Spy with a family member. Choose an object. Give a clue about the object along with a word that rhymes with it, e.g. I spy something that you walk on that rhymes with bug	Get a magazine, newspaper, or mail advertisement. Cut out all of the sight words that you can read. Glue them in your journal. Read the words to a family member. Try to find at least 15 words!
If you found $100, what would you buy? Draw a picture of your purchase, and write a sentence about it.	Gather all of the small items in your bedroom that are in the shape of a circle, square, rectangle and triangle. Sort the items out into groups.	Make a tally chart showing the different colours of shoes in your home. Use this information to make a picture graph. Be sure and label your graph. Which colour do you have the most of?	Look around your home. Is there something taller than you? Shorter than you? In your journal, draw a picture of yourself in the middle of the page and then draw 3 things that are shorter/taller than you.
Trace your hand onto a piece of paper. Using dried beans, beads, coins, or cereal, guess how many will fit inside your hand. Try it! Were you close to your guess?	Think of different jobs that people have. What are some jobs that are done in your home? How about at your school? What about in the community? Draw a job from each list.	Spend some time being active. Make an obstacle course of objects to go over, under and through.	Draw a picture of the 4 seasons. In each picture, include the kind of weather that happens during that season and the types of clothes people wear.
